DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-32 are pending in the instant application.

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:
methods for elucidating a protein expression profile of a test cell line or group of cells, said method comprising the following species subtypes:

1. method step of determining the identity of the protein fused to the marker peptide (for example, one of claim 7); and
2. viral vector used in the step of introducing the polynucleotide construct into the genome of a host cell (for example, one of claim 22).

Further, if Applicant elects SAVI as the method of determining the identity of the protein fused to the marker peptide, then either 5'SAVI or 3'SAVI must be elected (for example, claim 9 or claim 10). The species are independent or distinct because each method of determining the identity of the protein fused to the marker peptide is biologically and functionally different and distinct from each other. Thus, one does not render the other obvious. The methods of 5'RACE, 5'SAVI, and 3'SAVI comprise steps which are not required for or present in the each of the other methods. For example, 5' SAVI requires the cleavage of the cDNA upstream of the recognition sequence, whereas 3'SAVI requires the cleavage of the cDNA downstream of the recognition sequence. Each of the methods will identify different sequences based upon the method steps performed. Thus, the operation, function and effects of these different methods are different and distinct from each other. Therefore, the inventions of these different, distinct groups are capable of supporting separate patents. Furthermore, each viral vector has a distinct chemical structure and biological function, and thus one does not render the other obvious.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1-6 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
